Consumer Education Program Summary

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division offers cutting edge consumer education seminars on a variety of topics. Our seminars are designed to help you make savvy consumer decisions and to protect yourself and your loved ones from scams.

The Consumer Education program provides valuable information and resources to Michigan families in a comprehensive, user-friendly format:

- The Consumer Education website www.mi.gov/ce provides links to a wide variety of state and federal resources that can benefit Michigan citizens as well as a comprehensive guide to consumer protection information.
- The Consumer Education website also maintains a seminar calendar. The calendar is continuously updated so visitors can search for specific seminar topics or locations. The seminars are open to the public and you are encouraged to use the contact phone number to let the event coordinator know you plan to attend.
- The Consumer Education outreach program consists of 40-45 minute live presentations highlighting specific areas of interests. Subjects currently offered include (1) Home Repair and Improvement; (2) Identity Theft; (3) In-Home Care & Senior Residences; (4) Investment Fraud; (5) Online Safety; (6) Phone, Mail and e-Scams.

We look forward to working together to keep Michigan consumers informed and safe. Thank you for your interest in the Consumer Education program.
